Peter Rabbit Gets Into Mis-

Busy hands and busy fee, Having useful things to do, Mischief seldom leads astray— Here's a little hint for you.

e isn't a worker. He is happy-golucky, good-natured, but lazy. Much as we love him we have to admit that of work. He will spend no end of time and effort trying to satisfy his curiuseful work somehow Peter always is dreadfully tired. In fact, about the only work Peter ever does is to cut little paths through bramble-tangles for his own comfort and safety.

derstand why most of his feathered neighbors build new homes every of time. He cannot understand why they do not patch up their old homes. That is what he would do. I mean that if he was a bird he would each year patch up his old home if it was so fal-
